SPRING LIGHTS

Spring breeze in the inner lights - we can spread it widely widely
Kick start, drive on these roads - feel a ride likely alive me

Rush into the endless life, rightly into icon
Take it save to the inner guide, a way over the white wings - Sprite Kings

Steam vibes under your wheels - just a grit in and off
Lines of the glory feels - bend the time, enter the blaze
Where you will ever go - feeling lightly
All the gaining words realize me

Even faster through the landscapes - only the path is the goal
Flares up high behind into the sky

Spring Sigh, Spring Sigh - into fire ride
Spring Sigh, Spring Sigh - let explode, these vibes

Hey hey hey hey hey hey hey hey - now breathe wild way
Now breathe wild way
Come on, rock

Take it take it take it into your ride
Scent of wideness, liberty, infinity light
Have you've ever been at this place for this sight
Shift up next gear for blast of road splice

Spring breeze in the inner lights - we can spread it widely widely
Kick start, drive on these roads - feel a ride likely alive me
Spring Sigh, Spring Sigh - into fire ride
Spring Sigh, Spring Sigh - let explode, these vibes

LIGHTWAVES

When you feel a winged horse sails - tickles your skin under your nails

When you heal in lovely ground - by your voice fall in your heart

Trust your whole sound - in your arms free bound

Life in everlasting love - in joy takes us higher than heaven above

May you might guess that it's not quite enough - stay on path, never give up

Trust your whole sound - in your arms free bound

Lifted by these lightwaves high - fluttered wings in eternal ride

Out of the grey a flight into the life - one real lightstorm, sign post in line

Lightwaves on ground - always circle around

Trust your whole sound - in your arms I found

STRING MOVEMENTS

One life in sound - a second one united ground
All the waves - an out of time tale - only two minds in gale

Flushed by the sand of tide
With a new baseline in time
Powdering melodies rebuild
Grow rise and alive

A white line this site
Like your string the same size
Flow into your sonority

Here we breath into the wide
Your euphony is always my guide
All days and all nights
Know that it's right
When the real moments
Drive in sight
When the real moments
Drive in sight

Wherever you are, you are always here
In a certain way like the force of sunrays
Gentle feeling the whole day
Cuddle up every time
Into your melody

Felt like you'd always been here
Felt like you'd always been here

OUT OF THE BLUE

Look at the sky, clear weather tame - the will to fly high, realizing your aim

With you by my side all we can gain - out of the blue

We're flying, spread your wings - enter the gale

A new human pace - a true sunny vale

Drive in higher blaze - out of the blue

We override the laws of physics all time

A strong thrust - an always sparkling light

Tables will fly

Let you drift by lightning - sail here with the will of the forgotten wheel of life in gale

Guiding by you

We're in the willing of riding heavenly times to grow

See the vastness and sink into humility flow

Heating the glow

Let us finding all the treasures in gleaming life

Stay on the path hold on tight

Dive into survive

Watching among our aggravated conditions and hit

Run through the wall and all over the pits

Keep going on until the strongest border breaks

Out of the blue

Keep going, carry on, even if you're slowly getting tired

Crushing fired ice, find a way to more desire

The whole picture shakes, the entire frame flies away

Out of the blue

SLIDE

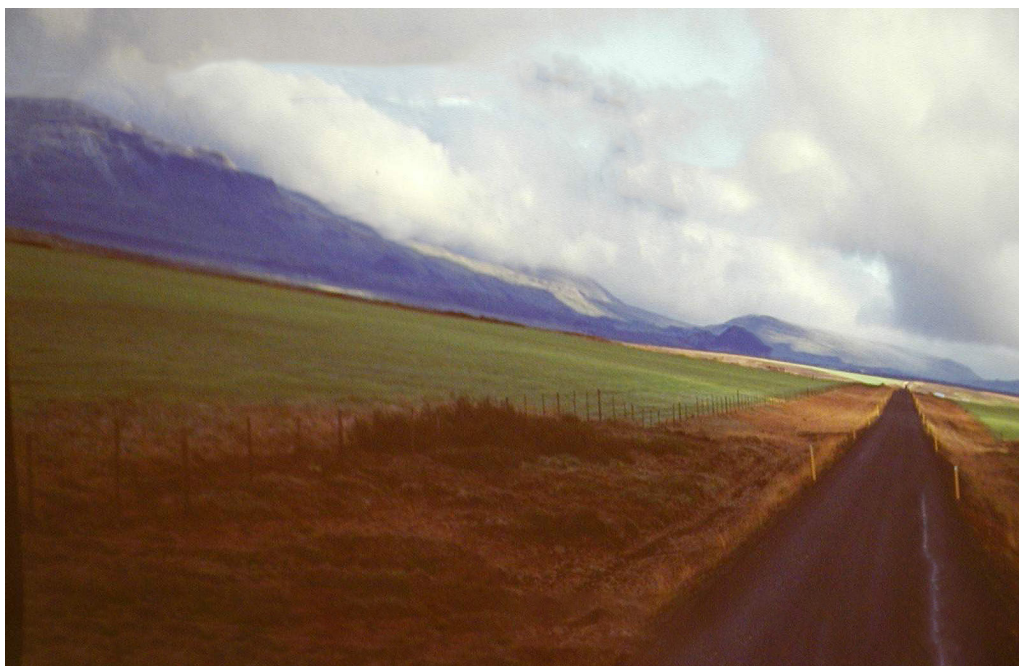

Life light, right side, bright shine, feel the heal is coming
Mind flight, great tide, land guide, take the key to heaven
White sprite, lifeline, right time, in the sea of cavern
When you feel the force take you to the seventh

Southern gate - longing have you ever never
And the roaring gale enter the silence ever
On the cloudy clast, lift up your wings and gage
And your knowing glowing growing, owing that your none done well

Sky kite, dive ride, rise pride, see the creed is running
Side wight hide night bind might, set the scaling one in Right wine we like pure dry - breeze deep into the lung in Insight fine like tight stripes - a tale to eternal crowing

Behind the path you've river crossed
And be bending to ride wild horse
Some you're scrawling on the blowing gale
Breeze

I can, I can believe it
I can, I can between feel

VOLCANO

Feel the spirit rise - when you're in the lightning
And your inner soul immediately breathes a sigh of relief
Now the vibration in your tummy rumbling keeps climbing
The glow on way, rightly, energetic blow

When the raw rocks lava brightly light up land in times of sightly
Rise of flames an inner soul - winig of your tale
Betting of and bend the line - in the savior riding in your mind wings
Life here seems be another world
Flush the lava sails

All deeply in core singed, the feel of the world, feel of the world
The greatest stone, inched, the heat of the world, heat of the world

Clashed the way by rock breathing, way is melting, forging, freezing
Meanwhile we stay straight on the path yeah yeah
Clashed the way by rock breathing, way is melting, forging, freezing
Meanwhile we stay straight on the path yeah yeah

LIGHTSOUND

Walking in the land of foreign rain - life gets weird in a different way
You'll always be fundamentally the same - all that defines you in now and future days

Start life, a lounge and the day of birth is rebound the first
Grow up on a farm with an enormous amount of action tasks, of delight lifethirst

Straight against injustice of a country, strong willed - home is in your own world that you built
Friends for life, a west way, chance in time - now and then always is better than sometimes

Luck is an ability - progressing through the heart of the storm
A big city became your own territory - and if it doesn't work, we'll do it again like before

Lightsound - you're voice fruition clear
On ground - high electric free atmosphere
Velvet ground - walking in these lines
We have no bounds - pulsating floating rhymes - Lightsound

You've never lost your special sense of humor, hard and heavy irony
It's exactly what you need to feel free
You're good at laughing at yourself -
Break through this wall
Never let your courage fell

Your voice floods the room with intrepidity
Come dance with me through the power of life
Found path of eternal delight
Straight up smash the sky fly high

WAVES IN YOUR HANDS

Light Living in the grain
Electric vibe on lake

Wake of your silly roar - on the sea gleam glimmer light in all
The atmosphere is full of drive - spirit of electrical twist alive
Feeling how the thunder rolling - beyond the time a voice is calling
A beam streamed smashing the whole white - visible outlines starts to guide

Taste way the luck of life - the day like an juicy lime - free feelings in your mind
Loving all around your soul, the branches of your roots - into your voice, your waterfall
Breathe it in and fly away - acuteness of thought for old times sake

Electrified by all these vibes - by all these thoughts - a storm of might Electrified electrified we always get electrified
Overcome barriers and Walls - a flight into another land - left clouds above
Wave your arms in the air gales - a spark sprays from your open hand - now

Waves in your hands - in your hands

Stay in the middle of the road - all your powers awaken
Breaking walls over country roads over the lanes

Waves in your hands - in your hands

Enter, fly, intertwining, moving ways
Your spirit will ever remain
